PRINCIPLED POLICING TRAIN THE TRAINER

Dates:

June 25-27, 2018CCN: 1261-12426-17-002

Course Description:

This three day (24 hour) course provides a "how to" on teaching policing approaches that emphasize respect, listening, neutrality, and trust (Procedural Justice) while also addressing the common implicit biases that can be barriers to these approaches (Implicit Bias). Law enforcement can improve trust and relationships between law enforcement agencies and their communities by using these principles to evaluate their policies, procedures and training within their departments. The course covers instruction on how law enforcement agencies can prepare to teach the one day (8 hour) course "Principled Policing: Procedural Justice & Implicit Bias" with a focus on ensuring an effective, high quality training.

Learning Outcomes:

- Successfully prepare for and assist in the presentation of Principled Policing.

Requirements:

Completion of the Principled Policing course.
Must be employed in law enforcement.

Post Reimbursement: Plan V Travel and per diem, training presentation costs reimbursement.
