PRINCIPLED POLICING

Dates:

October 1, 2018CCN: 1261-12425-18-001

Course Description:

This course teaches policing approaches that emphasize respect, listening, neutrality, and trust (Procedural Justice) while also addressing the common implicit biases that can be barriers to these approaches (Implicit Bias). Law enforcement can improve trust and relationships between law enforcement agencies and their communities by using these principles to evaluate their policies, procedures and training within their departments. In addition, developing an understanding of these two concepts will enable law enforcement to improve safety and well-being for the public and law enforcement officers alike.

Requirements:

Open to law enforcement agencies.

Post Reimbursement: Plan V Travel and per diem, training presentation costs reimbursement approved by POST.
